Akoya Boca West

Akoya Boca West is the newest residential construction in Boca West Country Club in more than 15 years.

The 120-unit residence was designed by architecture firm Garcia Stromberg/GS4 Studios and Interiors by Steven G.

Units range in price from $1 million to $4 million. Each residence features expansive living areas and floor-to-ceiling, impact and UV-resistant windows that offer scenic views of the golf course and lake.

Akoya combines resort-style luxury amenities and services, including a European-inspired spa, seven restaurants offering cuisine from casual to gourmet, a 24-hour fitness center with state-of-the-art training equipment, cardio and free weights, an aquatics center, four 18-hole championship golf courses, a 29-court tennis complex, and year-round private club activities.

5 THINGS TO KNOW

1 Untucked The brand that designs shirts meant to be worn untucked opened its first store in Town Center at Boca Raton. It strives to solve the problem of dress shirts looking sloppy when untucked.

2 Town Center at Boca Raton Oak Tree Valet opened between Macy's and Saks Fifth Avenue. This fall, La Boulangerie Boul'Mich, an artisan French bakery, is also expected to open, offering French-style recipes and bistro seating.

3 Paper Straws FarfromBoring Hospitality, a Boca Raton-based company, is selling eco-friendly, aesthetically pleasing and reasonably-priced paper straws. For every case sold, the business will partner with Trees for the Future to plant a tree.

4 Yolk At press time, the Chicago-based eatery was set to be open on Military Trail. Enjoy upscale breakfast and lunch fare with a twist, like the Breakfast Mac & Cheese.

5 Annual Educator Appreciation Dinner On Feb. 27, teachers, Holocaust survivors and community members will meet at the Boca Lago Country Club to recognize recipients of the Gutterman Family Outstanding Holocaust Educator of the Year Award.

Uptown Boca

Uptown Boca will be creating 456 luxury apartments and 150,591 square feet of retail space on 38 acres.

The $200 million mixed-use development project in west Boca Raton began construction in early October, and retailers are expected to open in summer 2019.

Confirmed tenants include Lucky's Market, Silverspot Cinema, Bolay and Chick-fil-A.
