

Akoya Boca West opens

Developer Siemens Group has opened Akoya Boca West, a 120-unit luxury condominium at Boca West Country Club. Akoya Boca West offers two to four-bedroom residences with prices ranging from $1 to $4 million. Garcia Stromberg/GS4 Studios was the architect and Interiors by Steven G. handled the inside.

Cloud Computing Concepts expands

Cloud Computing Concepts, a Delray Beach company that provides technology and communications services to businesses nationwide, has acquired EtherneXt of Miami. EtherneXt provides internet connectivity, co-location and managed services. Shown is C3 CEO Rick Mancinelli.

Miami office: Steven Naclerio, Dolly Hernandez, George L. Metcalfe Jr., Katherine A. Coba, Manuel A. Garcia-Linares, Alan Graham Greer, Charles H. Johnson, Georgia A. Thompson and Mark A. Romance.

True Food coming to CityPlace

True Food Kitchen, which has pioneered health-conscious dining, will open a seasonally inspired 6,000 square-foot restaurant and bar at CityPlace in West Palm Beach this fall. The restaurant will be located along Rosemary Avenue in CityPlace.

West Palm Beach office: Adam M. Myron, Amanda R. Keller, Michael J. Napoleone, Gerald F. Richman, Gary S. Betensky and Nathaniel M. Edenfield.

Day Pitney Finishes merger

Day Pitney has completed its merger with South Florida-based law firm Richman Greer. The combined firm retains Richman Greer's existing offices in Miami and West Palm Beach as well as all personnel, including 15 attorneys.

Former Office Depot HQ sold

The 42.7-acre former Office Depot headquarters on Congress Avenue in Delray Beach has been sold for $33 million. A partnership involving 13th Floor Investments of Miami, Key International of Miami and Boca CDS International Holdings of Boca Raton plans more than 600 multifamily units. CDS, which also owns the adjacent Arbors office building, also plans to develop retail and office space. The broker for seller investor Warranty of America was Avison Young principal Keith O'Donnell.